

What can we do? Strengthening community governance

---

Knowing the answers to these questions can help you start getting your community governance on track.

Questions	Answers
Who are the members of our community?
How will they be involved in creating and approving our governance arrangements?
How will they be involved in the long term?
How will we communicate with our community?
Does our governance reflect our community's culture and values?
How will our community stay accountable for its decisions?
How will we balance the interests of individuals and groups?	